GOLF MANAGEMENT

Welcome

Whether you're a seasoned competitor or a casual enthusiast, our impressive 18-hole, par 72 golf course designed by P.B. Dye is bound to captivate you. Established in 1995, this championship layout features lush zoysia fairways and smooth, consistent bent grass greens, all nestled around the scenic Curtis Memorial Park lake in Fredericksburg. The Gauntlet Golf Club accommodates even the most selective players with five tee options. The front nine winds through wetlands, while the back nine showcases spacious tiered greens.

Our comprehensive practice facility includes a large matted hitting area with various target zones, along with a practice bunker and chipping area. The practice putting green is conveniently situated next to the clubhouse, located between the 1st and 10th tees. We are dedicated to ensuring that you and your guests enjoy a memorable golfing experience. Whether you're gearing up for a tournament, require catering services, or simply seek warm hospitality, our commitment to outstanding service remains steadfast.

We offer a complete range of standard and specialty services, including our new LIVE Scoring feature, to provide that extra special touch. With over 50 years of expertise, our professional staff is passionate about the Gauntlet Golf Club's mission and dedication to excellence. No matter the size of your event, our Player Development team is ready to support every golfer from arrival to departure. Our goal is to leave a lasting impression on your entire group. We look forward to collaborating with you to create an unforgettable event year after year!

Sponsorship Opportunities

Securing sponsors is essential for enhancing profits at your golf tournament. It's crucial to ensure that potential sponsors recognize the significance of supporting your event. Here are several reasons why companies might consider sponsoring:

- They have an established relationship with the event organizer
- It provides visibility for their brand
- It offers entertainment for clients
- It creates networking opportunities
- It supports a cause or charity

When it comes to selling sponsorships, leverage your committee members, as they may have valuable connections to potential sponsors. Make it as straightforward as possible for businesses to become sponsors of your event. Providing sponsorship packages that clearly detail the contributions from companies and the benefits they will receive in return will encourage them to take action and support your event.

Raffles, Mulligans and More

Organizing a raffle during a golf tournament is an excellent strategy to encourage sign-ups and donations while also engaging non-golfing attendees. Raffle prizes provide a fantastic opportunity to secure donations from sponsors. Consider reaching out to local restaurants and businesses for gift cards. Additionally, items like cigar boxes and bottles of wine make for great raffle prizes. Other appealing options include complimentary rounds of golf at the host course or a premium set of clubs. Since many golfers are also sports enthusiasts, signed memorabilia or tickets to games would be ideal for attendees. In addition to Raffles and Mulligans, the Gauntlet can offer on course opportunities to raise donations with fun interactive games. Make sure to ask your coordinator for on course activities to enhance your players experience and raise additional funds. To increase the contributions, many tournaments allow players to purchase a mulligan to be used for different mulligan packages.

Examples of Mulligans include:

- A Musket Ball / or Throw to continue the shot
- Extra Putt on the Green
- Move forward a tee box
- String to extend a shot
- Mulligans (2nd Shot)

A Mulligan package all goes directly towards the event. This is a great and quick way to raise extra funds for the charity.
